Broadcast actions

EVENPa2019 offers the possibility of participating in different actions with multiple options according to the interests and communication objectives of your company.

Sponsorship:

Sponsorship options in areas with large public circulation and in the setting of the event will highlight the presence of your brand.

Placing your mark on the writing articles that are given to the attendees are always an excellent communication action.

Branding:

Wind is a lead actor in Patagonia, giving visibility and movement to your brand with flags on the outside of the show is an excellent branding action.
